

Mexico Assumes Pro Tempore Presidency of the Pacific Alliance

Mexico has assumed the Pro Tempore Presidency (PPT) of the Pacific Alliance, reaffirming its commitment to the bloc and to regional integration that effectively addresses the social, economic, trade and environmental challenges facing Latin America.

Council of Ministers concludes with signing of the Bogotá Act

At the meeting, senior officials approved the 2026 Cooperation Fund Work Plan and signed the Bogotá Act, which includes the main "Progress and Achievements" and the Presentation of the main activities of the 2026 work plans of the technical bodies.

Boost for Costa Rica's accession at meeting of National Coordinators of the Pacific Alliance

The meetings provided an opportunity to review progress and engage in technical and constructive exchanges of information aimed at facilitating understanding and coordination of key aspects of the process and next steps for conducting the negotiation rounds.

Pacific Alliance Highlights Women's Leadership in Artisanal Fisheries and Aquaculture

The event provided a forum to exchange local experiences, identify shared challenges, and reinforce the region's commitment to women's economic autonomy in the fisheries and aquaculture sector. Participants highlighted collective organization as a key tool for sustainable development.

Tenth In-Person Meeting of the Technical Subgroup on Measurement, Reporting and Verification of the Pacific Alliance

With this meeting, the Pacific Alliance countries reaffirmed their commitment to moving progressively from technical cooperation toward deeper regional integration on climate transparency.

Pacific Alliance Promotes Shared Care Responsibilities to Advance Women's Economic Autonomy in Latin America

The event, livestreamed on March 12 via Zoom, highlighted experiences and best practices that foster greater shared responsibility among the state, the private sector, families, and civil society.

National coordinators of the Pacific Alliance meet to discuss the priorities that will guide the mechanism's work

During the meeting, the 2026 calendar of activities and the priorities that will guide the mechanism's work throughout the year were presented.

FEATURED PUBLICATIONS

Armenia, Colombia to Bring Together 150 Tourism Industry Leaders from the Pacific Alliance and China for Business Roundtable

The VIII Pacific Alliance Tourism Business Roundtable will promote the marketing of sustainable destinations as part of the bloc's Capacity-Building Program for the Sustainable Internationalization of Tourist Destinations, led by the Promotion Agencies Technical Group (GTAP).

The 2026 version of the Pacific Alliance Tourism Investor Guide has been launched

Its publication gives continuity to the objectives of the project "Boosting the attraction of tourism investments for the sustainable reactivation of the Pacific Alliance countries", which was financed by the Pacific Alliance Cooperation Fund in 2023.